

Important Gujarat News

January 11, 2023

1. 11th January 2023, Ahmedabad: Celebration of 75 Years of LDCE: An LDCE graduate, Shri Vyomesh Joshi, who has worked for three decades in the Silicon Valley, said in an interview with Parth Shastri of TOI (Reference: <https://tinyurl.com/m4udm9hb>),”In the 1980s, the first tech firms were built around DATA. In the 1990s, around INFORMATION; and in the 2000s, the focus is on INSIGHT.” He added,”When one provides CONTEXT to DATA, it becomes INFORMATION, and when INFORMATION is used cohesively, it becomes INSIGHT.” Joshi said that the next phase is KNOWLEDGE, where AI will process the INSIGHT.

DiGiNews360 will go on reporting about the LDCEites from all over the world, as its contribution to the Celebration.

2. Jayen Mehta is appointed as the interim MD of the Board of Gujarat Co-operative Milk Marketing Federation: On Monday, GCMMF, which markets Amul products promoted Jayen Mehta from the position of COO to its interim MD. Mr. Rupinder Singh Sodhi, with four decades of service in the dairy industry of Gujarat, said that he had been thinking of retirement for about four years and had requested the Board to relieve him.

Jayen Mehta

Shamal Patel, the Chairman of the Board and Valamji Humbal, the Vice-Chairman of the Board of GCMMF refused to say anything on the issue.

3. Maintenance of Classical Buildings of Vadodara: Vadodara, known as the ‘Sanskar Nagari’ or the cultural capital of Gujarat has many classical buildings like the Domes of Kalabhavan and Faculty of Arts, Nyay Mandir, Kirti Mandir and the 133-year old Laxmi Vilas Palace, built by Maharaja Sayaji Rao, require maintenance by experts of the Archaeological Survey of India.

170-room, 133 years-old Laxmi Vilas Palace of Vadodara

Many citizens and NGOs have appealed to the Government to obtain the necessary expertise to restore the buildings to their original glory.

DiGiNews360 adds its voice to the appeal by citizens and organizations of Vadodara.
