

Important Gujarat News

January 2, 2023

1. Mukesh Ambani may purchase 51% shares of Lotus Chocolate at Rs 113 each:

On Friday, as soon as trading started, the circuits had to be closed for Lotus Shares since there was a sudden rise in the value of these shares. It was because the market came to know that Mukesh Ambani may purchase 51% of the company.

Isha Ambani, Mukesh Ambani's daughter, manages the responsibility for Reliance Retail Ventures and RRV is continuously expanding its business. The information is that Isha has decided to take over Lotus Chocolate.

Readers of www.DiGiNews360.com can read the above news in Gujarati at <https://gujaratguardian.com/mukesh-ambani-will-buy-this-chocolate-company-investors-scramble/> .

2. 50,000 tourists every day at Statute of Unity

SOU has become the top tourist spot during this Christmas – New Year period. 182-meter tall statute of Sardar Patel, the Deputy Prime Minister and the first Home Minister of free India, remains the top draw. The Jungle Safari, Glow garden, Narmada river cruise also draw tourists.

DiGiNews360 is of the view that there is a need for more hotel rooms for the tourists to stay.

Cactus Garden near Statute of Liberty

3. Jain Samaj submits a Memorandum of Protest against converting the sacred Shri Shikharji in Jharkhand into a tourist venue and against damage done to Palitana Derasar:

Shri Parshavnath Prabhu (23rd Tirthankar)

Jain community joined protest demonstrations in large numbers in Mumbai, Ahmedabad and other cities. At the sacred pilgrimage places of Jains, sale of meat products and liquor is prohibited. Encouraging non-religious tourists to come in large numbers may vitiate the environment. Vishwa Hindu Parishad has strongly supported the demand of Jains.
