2. February 7, 2023: Dharampur, Gujarat: Tribals start taking pride in their culture and dialects: In tribal dominated Talukas of Dharampur and Kaprada, the invitation cards for marriage show that the tribals have started taking pride in their culture and dialects. Earlier the invitation cards used to be in Gujarati language. The new trend is to use the dialect of the tribe along with paintings by some tribal artist. Local artists, who can sing and dance in the local dialect and who use traditional musical instruments are now being invited.

DiGiNews360.com appreciates the new trend and wonders whether this is the effect of Smt Draupadi Murmu's election as India's President.
