

Chinese Meddling in Canadian Elections of 2019 & 2021

March 15, 2023

The Right Honourable

Justin Trudeau

Justin Trudeau: A panel of senior public servants monitored the last two campaigns and concluded that while there was meddling, the interference did not meaningfully affect the outcome of the vote.

"We are — and have been for a long time — extremely concerned about China's actions towards our businesses, towards our researchers, towards communities here in Canada, and also politics."

Pierre Poilievre

Pierre Poilievre: Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has "inspired a lot of suspicion" because of his refusal to answer detailed questions about China's role in the 2019 and 2021 election campaigns.

"If we want to restore faith in our democracy, we have to answer these questions and bring in transparency."

Note: Please read "Trudeau: Canada isn't broken; Questions by Lilley" of 22nd Dec 2022" at <https://diginews360.com/trudeau-canada-isnt-broken-questions-by-lilley/>

Please read "Michael Chong, the foreign affairs critic of the Conservative party, called on the government to counter the Chinese interference in Canada" of Nov 10, 2022 at <https://diginews360.com/michael-chong-calls-for-ending-chinese-interference-in-canada/>