

TRULY Democracy of the People- Indian Example

India is being ruled by persons from the POOREST families

March 14, 2023

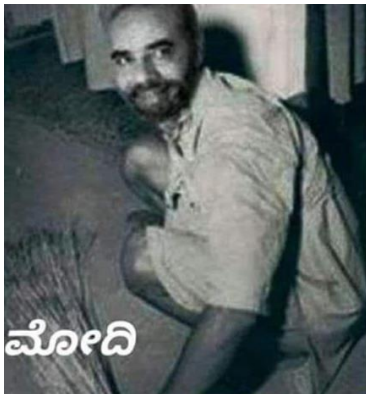

March 14, 2023: Thanks to Dr. Pratikshaben Raval for sending the following four photographs, which show that India is being ruled by persons from the POOREST family backgrounds. Theoretically an ideal society should permit every individual to rise to her full potential, whatever be her field of interest. The four pictures show that Indian democracy has a system through which it has become possible for persons to rise to the top-most positions through their sheer talent.
