

No Namaz on roads and Use of Loudspeakers by Mosques

July 9, 2023

Mosques around the world follow Yogi's prescription for an orderly Namaz, without disrupting traffic and inconveniencing others.

EXAMPLES:

June 29, 2023: Jamaat-e-Islami Hind Shows the Way to Tackle Rush of Worshippers in Mosques for prayers Without Inconvenience to Traffic Movement

The Jamaat office-bearers, managing the affairs of the mosque and assigned to lead the Eid-ul-Azha prayers, felt it was their responsibility to ensure that no one went back without offering the prayers because Ishaat-e-Islam Trust mosque, which attracts people from as far as NOIDA and other places in the National Capital Region. Since the roofed area of the mosque is not adequate to accommodate a huge gathering in Eid, the mosque management decided to hold two congregational prayers, one after the other with a gap of about half an hour between the two Jamaats.

Reference: <https://indiatomorrow.net/2023/06/29/jamaat-e-islami-hind-shows-the-way-to-tackle-rush-of-worshippers-in-mosques-for-prayers-without-inconvenience-to-traffic-movement/>

JIH secretary Dr. Mohiyuddin Ghazi immediately announced on the mike that the management has decided to hold two congregational prayers and those who could not find space in the roofed area in the first congregation should wait. The second Jamaat would be held at 8.10 a.m., 40 minutes after the first.

May 4, 2021: Sharjah: Khalej Times reported as follows: Muslims will be allowed to offer special Ramadan prayers only in the mosque campus, the Sharjah Police have announced. More than 245 special patrols will be deployed to ensure that worshippers don't offer the Taraweeh or Tahajjud prayers on the street or at roundabouts.

Note: 'Taraweeh' is a voluntary prayer performed after the evening prayer, Isha, every single night during Ramadan. The word Taraweeh means rest or relaxation. 'Tahajjud', also known as the "night prayer", is a voluntary prayer performed by followers of Islam. It is not one of the five obligatory prayers required of all Muslims.

October 22, 2020: A temporary ban on Friday prayers during Covid-19: The Middle East Monitor reported as follows:

The Authorities in Arab countries, particularly Jordan, the UAE, the Sultanate of Oman and Algeria, have decided to ban the Friday prayer under the pretext of limiting the spread of the coronavirus pandemic.

(Reference: <https://www.middleeastmonitor.com/20201022-they-banned-friday-prayer/>)

Jan 22, 2018: Abu Dhabi: "Stopping a vehicle (a car, a bus etc) on the side of the roads, at an undesignated place, for offering prayers and other purposes will be liable to pay a fine," said Lieutenant Colonel Salah Abdullah Al Humairi, the Deputy Director of Abu Dhabi Traffic Department at Traffic and Patrols Department.

May 30, 2021: Saudi Arabia has ordered that the external amplifiers in mosques must not be used except for issuing a Call to Prayers.